Three-Year Rail Peace Pact Made

WASHINGTON, Dec. 21.—(AP)—The White House today announced a three-year peace pact between the major railroads and four operating railroads.

The agreement provides: For 120,000 railroad yardmen—an immediate increase of 23 cents an hour, with another two cents on Jan. 1, and cost of living adjustments every three months beginning next April 1. The adjustments are to be made at the rate of one cent an hour for ever; rise or fall of one point in the government's consumers price index.

Boost Retroactive

The 23-cent pay boost is retroactive to Oct. 1.

For about 180,000 road service workers—an immediate increase of five cents a day, also retroactive to Oct. 4, and another five cents effective Jan. 1, plus the same cost of living arrangement.

The settlement was announced by Presidential Assistant John R. Steelman, who took over negotiations in the months-long dispute after the government sized the railroads.

Senate Confirms Mrs. Rosenberg

WASHINGTON, Dec. 21.—(AP)—The senate today confirmed Mrs. Anna M. Rosenberg as assistant secretary of defense by a voice vote.

Action came after the senate armed services committee twice had unanimously recommended such action. Testimony that she had Communist associations 15 years ago was rejected by the committee as false.

She said it was a case of mistaken identity.

Born in Hungary 49 years ago, Mrs. Rosenberg is the first woman ever to serve in such a high post in the military departments.

She will act as a manpower and labor authority under Secretary of Defense Marshall, who personally asked her appointment.

Mrs. Rosenberg has been serving for a month in the $15,000-a-year post under a temporary appointment.

Script Is Comic But House Burns

MITCHELL, Ind., Dec. 21.—(AP)—The chain of events read like a slapstick comedy script, but it wasn't funny because Leon Tankersley's house was burning all the time.

First, a neighbor called police instead of firemen. When the firemen got the word and responded a stalled automobile blocked their truck.

After the firemen arrived, the threads were stripped on one fire plug and the packing in the valve of another fire plug blew out. The hose had to be laid to plug a half mile away.

In the meantime, a policeman was struck by an auto and two drivers were arrested for interfering with firemen.

By the time the hose was laid the house was gone. So were all the Christmas presents. Mr. and Mrs. Tankersley and their eight children saved only the clothes they were wearing.

Republic Of Korea Officials Promise To Halt Mass Executions In Future

SEOUL, Dec. 21.—(AP)—United Nations officials said today the Republic of Korea government has agreed to stop mass executions of convicted persons. They said executions henceforth would be carried out individually and only in the cases of the "most heinous" crimes.

The promise was announced a day after British Brigadier Tom Brodie stopped some executions, saying he would "not have people executed on my doorstep." A British source said he intervened against the shooting of civilians after 23 had been "done in."

Brodie's Northumberland Fusiliers took over "Execution Hill," site of some shootings by government order, Tuesday in what was described as a move against such acts.

The UN Commission for the Unification and Rehabilitation of Korea (UNCURK) said the government has pledged that henceforth "all executions will be carried out individually and not in groups" and that sentences for all but the "most heinous" crimes would be reduced to prison terms.

Before the UN announcement the Korean minister of justice said some reports of the mass execu-

TOP SECRET ITEMS ARE IN MEASURE

WASHINGTON, Dec. 21.—(AP)—Working at top speed, the senate today voted $20,000,000 for defense funds and gave approval for $1,600,000,000 of special defense construction, much of it top secret.

Both measures were passed by voice votes.

The $1,600,000,000 authorization measure goes on to President Truman. The house passed it Wednesday.

The big appropriation bill, a catch-all for funds asked by President Truman since Communist Chinese forces surged into Korea, goes back to the house.

As the bill cleared the senate it carried some $2,000,000,000 more than voted by the house. These differences are expected to be adjusted quickly.

Senator Russell (D-Ga.), acting chairman of the armed services committee, asked the senate to put through the authorization by filibuster.

The spending bill, Russell explained, contains the money for any that this means for the defense of the free world.

The president issued the statement after Acheson gave him a full report of his meeting in Brussels with the foreign and defense ministers of the North Atlantic treaty countries.

Eisenhower Will Hearten Europe, Acheson Asserts

WASHINGTON, Dec. 21.—(AP)—Secretary of State Acheson told President Truman today the appointment of Gen. Eisenhower as supreme Allied commander in Europe has "greatly heartened and inspired the European nations."

The president relayed this information to reporters in a statement in which Mr. Truman said:

"I am in full agreement with the secretary that the spirit shown by the countries of Western Europe has justified our confidence that the free states of Europe mean business about setting up our common defense system."

Truman said that "within the next few weeks the soldiers in Europe of the members of the North Atlantic community will be training together. Many of our hopes have now become facts with all that this means for the defense of the free world."

The president issued the statement after Acheson gave him a full report of his meeting in Brussels with the foreign and defense ministers of the North Atlantic treaty countries.

On the house side of the capitol leaders had to drop plans to rush through a bill giving President Truman additional emergency powers.

Fewer than half the members answered the first roll call and the leadership decided to postpone a vote on the measure until Jan. 1. A majority of the members must

Record Spring Pig Crop Slated

WASHINGTON, Dec. 21.—(AP)—Charles E. Wilson, tool office director of defense mobilization and immediately appointed General Lucius Clay and Barker Sidney Weinberg as his assistants. Wilson, former president of General Electric, told reporters of the two appointments at the White House after taking the oath of office in President Truman's presence.

Both Experienced

Wilson said Clay and Weinberg will serve without compensation.

Clay, former U. S. commander at Berlin, is returning his position as chairman of the board of the Continental Can Co.

Weinberg is senior partner of Goldman, Sachs and Company, New York investment banking firm. He was a vice-president of the War Production board in World War II.

The oath was administered to Wilson by Chief Justice Vinson in Truman's circular office. The three men stood beneath a large portrait of George Washington.

W. Stuart Symington, chairman of the National Security Resources board, some of whose duties Wilson is taking over in the mobilization job, stepped up after the ceremony smiling and said, "Let me be the first to congratulate you."

Wilson Plans Survey

Wilson told reporters his immediate plans are to continue just as he is doing now—that is, surveying the job that must be done and getting "just as many facts as I can."

Wilson took the oath of office well under 24 hours after his appointment was rushed through confirmation of his appointment.

As head of the newly created Office of Defense Mobilization Wilson will have great powers to

Stalin Is Praised On 71st Birthday

By the Associated Press Today is Joseph Stalin's 71st birthday. He's 71 now while his controlled press at home once again hailed him in extravagant prose.

Communists in the ring of states around Russia pulled out the stops attempting to outdo each other in praising him.

In Moscow, East Berlin, Prague, Sofia, Bucharest, Budapest and Warsaw, the Communist press chorused praise of the man of the hour in phrases like these:

"Greatest scientist of our time."

"Leader of the world peace camp."

"Defender of the worker."

"Great genius Stalin."

2 SHOPPING DAYS TILL CHRISTMAS

Navarro County Drought Broken By Morning Shower

A drought-relieving rain splashed Navarro county early Thursday morning. The first precipitation since Nov. 16.

The minister, Kim Joong Yun, referred to reports that political prisoners were not given fair trials and that in one instance a boy and girl were set free. He added:

"This is not only false but is completely irresponsible and vicious slander."

Kim's prepared statement carried the names of the 28 men and 11 women executed the day United Nations troops happened on the scene.

All 39 he said, were tried and convicted under the emergency decree adopted at Taegu June 28 and subsequently approved by the National Assembly.

This decree provides the death penalty during the national emergency for anyone convicted of murder, arson, rape, destruction or sabotage of military facilities, robbery of military materials in quantities and acts causing a prison break.

Some lightning accompanied the precipitation, but no damage was reported.

County reports included:

Blooming Grove—good showers, some lightning, starting at 3:30 a. m.

Frost—about one-third inch of rain, and lightning.

Dawson—half-inch rain, starting about 4 a. m.

Fresh North Korean soldiers were on the next ridge line over. On his right flank they had strongpointed

Exchanges Will Observe Holiday

NEW YORK, Dec. 21.—(AP)—Finally commodity exchanges throughout the United States will be closed Saturday, Dec. 22, and Christmas day, Dec. 25. Various livestock reports will be issued as usual on Saturday Dec. 22.

Several New York commodity markets will close at noon, Eastern Standard time, on Friday, Dec. 22, for their Christmas celebrations.

British and Canadian financial and grain exchanges will be closed from Saturday Dec. 23 through Tuesday Dec. 26, as Tuesday was "Boxing Day" in those territories.

Unless the Peiping position changes, the cease fire committee is expected to report after New Year's day that it cannot halt the Korean fighting.

Hoover Address To Linger Long In Congress Halls

WASHINGTON, Dec. 21.—(AP)—

Ahill which surrounding crags masked from American artillery.

At 7:45 a. m. Monday the Communists struck. Crawling up the bare windswept ridge came three groups of 20 men—one group on each flank, one dead center.

Bottle Contents Analyzed.

Just a small attack, but made by ferocious men who would not stop even when wounded. Later a doctor analyzed the contents of a bottle taken off one dead Communist and found it contained morphine.

The Red assault disintegrated when each American was down to his last ammunition clip of eight bullets. That's how close the Communists came to penetrating at least the outer UN defense ring.

The savage battle of "Sutton's Ridge" began before dawn Monday.

The American counterattack ended Tuesday noon.

A famous Third division regiment was holding part of the hilly Eastern flank of the beachhead. Sutton's platoon was allotted a long, three-humped ridge.

Sutton spotted his men in strong points on the three ridge nipples and along the World War I type trenches.

Fresh North Korean soldiers were on the next ridge line over. On his right flank they had strongpointed

PLANS ARE BEING MADE TO MOBILIZE NATION'S WOMAN POWER SHORTLY

Plans are now in progress for the mobilization of all available woman power for the war effort, according to officials of the National Security Resources Board. For the time being, the mobilization will be on a volunteer basis. Presidents of fourteen of the women's largest national organizations of the country will use a national clearing house committee for the purpose of meeting regularly in Washington and discussing policies affecting women in war.

The women's clearing house committee will be composed of the presidents of the following organizations: American Association of University Women; American Farm Bureau Federation; General Federation of Women's Clubs; National Association of Business and Professional Women's Clubs; National League of Women Voters; Young Women's Christian Association; National Council of Catholic Women; National Council of Jewish Women; United Council of Protestant Church Women; National Council of Negro Women; the National Auxiliary of the American Legion; Women of the American Federation of Labor; and the C. I. O. and P. I. International. No Draft at Present.

There are no plans at present for the drafting of women. Right now, everything depends on volunteer enlistments of the women of the country for a long list of jobs necessary to war work. Some of the jobs will be paid govern-

Two Injured In Auto Accidents

Automobile mishaps sent two persons to a Corsicana hospital early Tuesday afternoon.

Dan Bryant, 60-year-old negro resident of Corsicana, received serious injuries early Tuesday afternoon when he was struck by an automobile in the 900 block of East 7th avenue here.

City police were investigating at press time. P. and S. Hospital attendants said the negro sustained a possible concussion. A Griffin ambulance took him to the hospital.

Guy Wood, Reane resident, injured his left arm about 2:30 Tuesday afternoon when he lost control of his pickup truck on a farm road near Powell and overturned. His condition was not thought to be serious, but he was held for examination at the P. and S. Hospital here. He was brought in by private car.

Plans are now under way to give women government-sponsored "refresher courses."

Officials of the National Security Resources Board recommended that mothers should take the responsibility immediately of going to parent-teacher associations and schools to demand bomb drills, and that they make all possible arrangements for protection. Negro schools should be set up. Every woman should immediately enlist for first aid and Red Cross training classes. Every woman should immediately enlist for first aid and Red Cross training classes. Every woman should donate blood now. They should come to some agreement in communities on how water can be safely covered and work their homes. And since fire fighting should be learned by every member of a household.

Civil Defense Positions
Officials have emphasized the fact that the United States government is not asleep at the switch, but is acting very fast, considering the magnitude of the country. Possible positions in civil defense for qualified women have been listed as follows: state associate director of women, associate local director, communications workers, controllers, plotters, communications, clerical, aircraft observers, wardens, transportation wardens, public relations, engineering services, public health, city planning, sanitation, rescue services, truck driving, acetylene torch operators, crane operator, chief evacuator, chemical decontaminators, desk sergeants, police women, dispatchers, property officers, storekeepers, food and dressings makers, welfare workers, feeding and housing administrators and instructors.

Thieves Strip Abandoned Car

An Ennis man practically had no car today—and all because he had no tire tools.

Sunday night his '37 model Dodge sedan was near Chipper Creek on Highway 75. Having no tools he left the vehicle beside the highway until Monday afternoon.

When he returned the car wasn't there. Someone had towed it up a country road and into a field.

Missing were five tires, three wheels, the battery and radio.

The highway patrol is investigating.

The First Methodist church of Kerens acted as host for the annual Christmas service of the North Corsicana sub-district Youth Fellowship Monday night.

Eighty-five young people, parents and counselors were in attendance for the worship and traditional service which included traditional carol singing and slide projection of the "Birth of Christ."

Following a brief business meeting, the group adjourned to the church basement and amid festive decorations joined in the game of stunts led by Rev. Carl Thompson, pastor of the First church. Refreshments were served and gifts for the Methodist Home in Waco were placed under the tree, after which the occasion was concluded with a friendship circle.

Kerens boasted the highest number present. The January meeting is scheduled for the Corsicana Methodist church.

Fighting Men Of Various Nations Live In Harmony

By WILLIAM BARNARD

A KOREAN TOWN ON THE WAY TO THE FRONT, Dec. 21—(AP)—This is an international town where fighting men of many nations live in harmony.

It is a center of United Nations forces. Walk down a winding, ice-covered street and you're likely to find two or three nationalities to the book. The French are here, the Dutch, the British. Here are Siamese; Greeks skilled in guerrilla warfare. Americans, and quite a few Turks.

Dutch Volunteers

Capt. Cornelius Marion of the Netherlands forces, a 205-pounder, 6 feet 2 inches tall, a blue eyed man of 37, said:

"These men of The Netherlands unit are all volunteers and they are tough. Some are here for adventure, others for men want 'war' is Holland. I want to see the world. But most are here because they are bitterly against Communism."

"I have three children and another is on the way. I remember 1935 and Hitler and how we waited until he came. I do not intend to wait for Joseph Stalin. It is better to die on the front than in the doors of your home."

Capt. Alfred Van Mours, a physician with The Netherlands forces and formerly of Jakarta (Batavia), Java, said: "It is splendid how well men of so many varied nationalities get along on this crowded place."

Our men play soccer with the British, the American dentist pulls teeth, and the British dentist fills them, and our men are delighted with American rationing.

"Our own soldiers don't eat half as well at home. The amount of meat and canned fruit is amazing. These C rations would be a luxury in Holland."

French Hospital

Visit the French contingent and you find plenty of hospitality from Lt. Col. Ralph Monclar, commanding.

He apologizes that he has no special food to offer his guests but C rations served with ceremony. He personally ladies chicken soup into the plates for officers and guests. He often peers around the sputtering camp, urging further supplies of lumber and dried fish and covered beef. His officers call him general for the 58-year-old Monclar is a Lieutenant general of the French army who took a temporary demotion to serve in Korea. "Why did I volunteer?" he asks.

The United Nations is the hope of all humanity. When I die my son will be able to say his father was a member of the first United Nations army."

SHAMBURGER ON BOARD.

Rev. W. M. Shamburger, pastor of the First Baptist church, has been re-elected to a three year term as trustee of the East Texas Baptist College at Marshall.

U. S. Ambassador To Moscow Says Stalin Is Active

WASHINGTON, Dec. 21.—(UPI)—Alan G. Kirk, ambassador to Russia, says that as far as he knows Premier Stalin is "strong, active and alert."

But Kirk hastens to add, he hasn't seen Stalin since last June and then only at a distance during a Soviet ceremony.

The Russian leader looked as well then, Kirk says, as he did about a year earlier during his first visitation at the Kremlin. That's the only audience Kirk has had with Stalin since he went to Moscow 18 months ago.

Sees Few Russians.

As a matter of fact, except for four Soviet guards, Kirk told reporters after a White House call he sees little of the Russian people.

"Russians are not allowed to come to the embassy, so there's no contact," he said.

But those four Russian guards! Whether Kirk goes to a hotel or to a soccer game, they pick him up at the embassy gate and tag along.

Sometimes, Kirk said, he shares cigarettes with them.

But, "don't get the idea I'm buddies with those guys."

Activities Curbed

Aside from the guards, who are supposed to be on the job for "protection," Kirk encounters other restrictions living in Moscow. For example he can only go about 30 miles outside the city without special permit and then only on a route arranged by the Soviets.

Kirk is in Washington for talks with President Truman and the State Department. It's his first trip home since he went to Moscow in 1949. He said he expects to return in January but will see Mr. Truman again before leaving.

Every neighborhood should have a "Society for the Advancement of the Annual Christmas Gift." It is tough on the girl who finds nothing but mittens in her stocking all because everybody had the same idea—"It is just what she needs."

The Christmas gift should be a bit of a surprise—it is all the more welcome when it is distinctly unusual, and useful. Usually, if you take into consideration the hobbies and general interests of the recipient-to-be, something different can be found to put under her tree. Don't be the kind of a gift giver who "gets the gift over with" by buying the first thing she sees, so there is only one name on her list.

Use your imagination. What does a young girl like? Well, what would you like? Your friend would probably like some of the things you have been yearning for. How about: Lessons in figure skating or swimming? A diving board or swing for the vanity table? A diary or fountain pen? A subscription to a magazine she particularly adores? Theatre or concert tickets? A gift certificate for a few horseback rides? A portable iron for vacations?

If she's the career girl type, she'll probably like a collection of hats, panty girdles, a copper pot, a salver, bowl, attractive laundry racks for the bathroom, ready-to-mix pie crust and cake mix, a current best-selling book, book ends, an etched engagement calendar, leatherbound telephone address book, window boxes with herb seeds.

The young boy depending on his particular enthusiasm will gasp over a chemistry set, book on magic tricks, subscription to adventure or scientific magazines. It has a fisherman's lure, lures and other equipment. Gun books are fine for young men who admire six-shooters. An indexed record case won't be scoffed at if he's a record collector. Perhaps he'd appreciate a photograph album or tickets to the horse show.

Dad would probably love some barbecue accessories such as asbestos gloves, a chef's hat or the chef's apron. Long-handled forks and ladies as well as outdoor cookery books also are a hit with outdoor culinary experts. The latest paper or magazine he buys will be very nice presents with the possibility of a year's subscription as a thoughtful gift. He might even need a new tennis racket, ice skates or horse-shoe pitching set.

If Mom enjoys knitting why not give her enough wool to satisfy a particular project? A plain, simple, knitting needle or a winking square? Add to her collection of or pressed glass (after you determine her favorite pattern).

A gift certificate for a permanent wave, silver meat fork, serving spoon or other pieces to match her silver pattern also might be welcome.

QUATRAINS.

Greeting.
No new way to say it
Now occurs to me
Christmas Day. And may it be happy for all.

Christmas Kisses.
If what I want I get,
There will be crimson streaks
of lipstick on my cheeks
Which lovely mouths have set.

Not an Early Riser.
Since I'm a very sleepy man
I ask for a clock a.m.
I wish that Santa Claus would plan a later call for them.

Warning.
This warning curt
Before they buy:
White, if a shirt;
Bow, if a tie.

CHALLENGING SPACE

Nettled by the aspersions cast on the physical condition of American youth in connection with military induction examinations, some schools are revising their physical education programs. During World War II the statement was made repeatedly that the proportion of physically unfit young men was shameful for a nation supposed to have the highest nutrition and health standards in the world. Selective Service experience in the Korean conflict shows little change. The number of rejections for physical reasons continues to be astonishingly high.

School men who accept this frequently heard observation as a slur against their programs are largely correct. Public school physical training in general has been woefully inadequate. It is likely to consist of a couple of class periods per week devoted to light calisthenics or moderately active games. The physical training period is very often the one which gives way to an assembly program or other special activity. It is normally listed as a required subject but it has usually been easy for the student who wishes to escape these small rigors to do so, by substituting participation in competitive sports or some other activity.

A BAD HIGHWAY YEAR

A New Year's resolution to drive carefully is especially in point this year. The year 1950 has been the worst since the end of the war for traffic deaths, according to Julian H. Harvey of the Association of Casualty and Surety Companies. He thinks that the total of fatal accidents for the year will be 36,000. A war which cost so many lives would be ranked as one of the bloodiest in our national history.

There is nothing new in Harvey's list of causes. Bad weather, icy roads, speed and drinking are the chief reasons, just as they have always been. It might be thought that the constant repetition of these facts would really make an impression on drivers, but it does not seem to do so.

COUNCIL OF EUROPE

Events in Korea have tended to turn the world's attention away from the meeting of the Consultative Assembly of the Council of Europe, which recently wound up its sessions in Strasbourg.

Its two principal achievements were the choice of a definite method of work and a treaty which involves a statement of human rights. It was decided that governmental negotiation as an approach to common action would be the instrument used, rather than the proposed federalization or union of governments. The convention on human rights, after its ratification, will make it illegal to set up a totalitarian system in any of the countries represented.

Those who see only futility in meetings which involve lengthy discussions, with few conclusions being reached, should view these proceedings in their true light. In all its centuries of existence, Europe has consisted of a group of intensely individualistic nations, which were nearly always at war over their conflicting interests. Now for the first time they are making an honest attempt to act for good of all. If only two small steps are taken at each meeting, that meeting should be considered to have made gratifying progress.

The out-of-office campaigners have been exclaiming alarm over the nation's position. Although we've heard this before at election time and the country has always survived, the thought is always worthy of consideration. Eternal vigilance costs little, but its rewards are mighty.

To bid at auction sales is great fun. But every now and then you get caught with an unexpectedly accepted offer.

OUR NOMINATION FOR "THE THING"

HORRIS

IMPREGNABLE FORTRESS

"Give not up Gibraltar!" This was a popular British song early in the eighteenth century, when England was intermittently at war with Spain. It may be heard again if the Spanish push their demand that the British surrender this bit of the Spanish peninsula.

Gibraltar, the symbol of impregnability, has been British since 1704, and has withstood three sieges from the French and Spanish. One lasted from 1779 to 1783.

Since then it has remained undisturbed, except for an occasional bomb dropped in its direction in the two world wars.

Its actual value is much less now than formerly. Guarding the entrance to the Mediterranean, it can still withstand attack from the sea, but from the air it is in a much less favorable position.

Probably also long range guns from Africa could weaken its effectiveness if not destroy it altogether, by blocking off boats that sought to pass through the Straits from the Mediterranean to the Atlantic under protection of the Gibraltar guns.

Much more important is its symbolic value. It has been so long a synonym for a fortress which could not be captured, that to give it up would seem like giving up the keystone of the British empire. Franco presumably knows that. He is undoubtedly resorting to the familiar device of shaky governments, distracting the people's attention from the issues around them by picking a quarrel with a foreign country.

TRIPS TO THE MOON

Are you disappointed because you can't ride on a rocket ship to the moon? Blame Adolf Hitler and the chain of wrong policies that brought on the depression of the thirties. In 1931, says Arthur Louis Joquet II of the Rocket Research Institute, plans were made for an international commission on space travel, on which American, German and French scientists would be represented. The depression made it impossible to get any money needed for further research, and the rise of Hitler prevented all forms of peaceful international cooperation with Germany.

The Russian danger may cause a renewal of investigations. Unfortunately the idea will probably be not the creation of an air line for pleasant travel, but the establishment of new location in the stratosphere for the use of bombers.

The out-of-office campaigners have been exclaiming alarm over the nation's position. Although we've heard this before at election time and the country has always survived, the thought is always worthy of consideration. Eternal vigilance costs little, but its rewards are mighty.

The latest defense department casualty list, issued Thursday and covering notifications of relatives through Dec. 15, showed total casualties of 36,421, including 6,180 dead.

The Chinese have been around the Hungnam beachhead in greatest numbers for days, but it was apparent that the battling retreat of U. S. Marines and 10th Corps doughboys farther north had badly crippled an estimated 10 Red divisions.

Red efforts to reorganize their forces were progressing slowly, too slowly to hamper the planned withdrawal of American forces from the Hungnam beachhead. U. S. losses, there are reported, extremely small considering the action involved.

AP Correspondent Tom Lambert and Stan Swinton, in the beachhead, reported enemy inactivity on the Hungnam perimeter field commanders worried, although they said they were certain the Chinese, sounding like well-armed field artillery, and big naval guns had hurt the Reds badly.

Warships continued to hammer Communist troops concentrations north of the beachhead.

Correspondent Lambert reported the Communists had replied only with mortar attacks on the enemy flank.

Swinton reported the air and artillery attacks fired five small villages. The Communists had been using the villages for assembly areas.

The Far East air forces reported continuing attacks on Communist forces throughout the S. E. Asian area in the northwest.

A top officer at General MacArthur's headquarters in Tokyo vigorously denied reports that Communists had used gas grenades against the Hungnam troops. The report, he said, was wholly unconfirmed and doubted at headquarters because the Chinese Communists had had no training in gas warfare and did not have gas masks.

British fliers from the carrier

Theseus operating off the west coast reported scarcity of targets along the main road and rail system connecting the North Korean capital of Pyongyang, Hwangju and Kumsong. They said there was an indication of night traffic along the snow-covered roads but no traffic was observed during the day.

The British rocketed nine bridges at Hano. Successful attacks also were made on two locomotives north of Hwangju.

SENATE

He presented in order for the house to do business.

In a home-for-Christmas drive, the house passed Wednesday and sent to the senate two other measures on the president's "must" list:

1—A bill setting up a nationwide civil defense system to deal with a possible atomic attack. This program is expected to cost $3,100,000,000 in federal and state funds over the next three years.

2—$1,600,000,000 military public works authorization, much of it for top-secret purposes.

Senator McKellar (D-Tenn), veteran chairman of the appropriations committee, pushed the $20,000,000 emergency defense bill through the committee with wartime speed Wednesday.

The bill is $2,000,000,000 larger than similar legislation already approved by the house. The largest sum was $1,834,911,000 for the stockpiling of strategic and critical materials such as rubber, tin, numerous metals and other materials and commodities in short supply during the last war.

The house voted $840,000,000 for the atomic energy commission while the senate group raised this to $1,080,000,000.

Also added were multi-million dollar items to build 60 fast cargo planes instead of 40 voted by the house, additional funds for the Tennessee Valley Authority, and additional aircraft research.

Only one big cut was made by the senate committee. This was elimination of a $1,950,000 fund for the Southeastern Power Administration.

The house approved this when told it would be used to build electric power transmission facilities to Langley Field, Va., for research on supersonic speed aircraft.

The senate committee agreed that a private utility company in that area should build this line.

The committee also agreed to offer one new provision on the senator Truman divergent to $112,000,000 of Marshall Plan funds for aid in the China area.

Senator Knowland (R-Calif) said

SWINTON

Somehow—Perhaps with drugs, perhaps with words—the enemy officers whipped them into a frenzy during the night. At 6 a. m. Tuesday, two hours before the late North Korean dawn, the Reds assaulted Sutton Ridge.

A suicide enemy force struck up the slope against the left flank. Sutton was not too worried about these two fronts—the massed fire power of American artillery could hit there.

But from the hill on the right, masked from the guns by other hills—the main force of the enemy was assaulting in the darkness.

With flashing bayonets they burst into the stronghold on the last of the three ridges on Sutton's Ridge. The American there fought desperately.

Once inside the trenches the Reds turned the American's own machinegun down the ridge.

PC. Elijah Whitley of Toledo, Ohio, fought with his Browning automatic rifle, silencing the machinegun. Along the ridge line Sutton and his men rolled hand grenades down the slope. In the breaking dawn they could see the Communists crumple and tumble down the slope and then see new men replace them. Bodies were strewn crazily on the slopes.

Charge Disintegrates.

"We gave them everything we had," Sutton said. "That was enough. The last fanatic charge disintegrated."

Reds retreated reached them. U. S. Mortars thumped down on the enemy-held right hand ridge nipple. Sutton led a counterattack. The enemy was driven off it and the Americans again held all of Sutton's Ridge.

The closest thing yet to a Communist breakthrough into Hungnam beachhead had been thrown back.

Clay tiles decorated with family coats-of-arms or symbolic representations of sports and hobbies are an increasingly popular means of giving individuality to the fireplace.

Carols Add To The Joys Of Christmas

By DAVID TAYLOR MARKE
AP Education Writer.

Music is important in the lives of our children. At Christmas time parents and teachers can help enrich the lives of children by teaching them carols and perhaps joining in a family chorus.

Making living worth while, says Mrs. Frank Kelly, music chairman of the Kentucky Congress of Parents and Teachers, is an immediate need of childhood. Writing in the Kentucky Parent-Teacher, she says:

"Making living worthwhile... is an idea that must be planted early and tended carefully through all the growing years. And so, from the first day he enters the public schools, the child is given not only the practical tools of communication and arithmetic—reading, writing, and arithmetic—but also the keys to better ways of living. For his bodily health there is physical education; for his understanding and adjustments to the world in which he lives, there are the sciences, natural and social; and for his emotional and spiritual development, there are the fine arts."

"Of all the arts music, perhaps, reaches the most people and touches them most intimately. Whether we ourselves sing or play, or merely listen, we know that music is a part of life.

Going back to the far-off days of the Psalmist David and the philosopher Plato, records show that the wise men of all times and countries have considered music not only as art, but as necessity and as a noble welfare. Music is man's emotional escape valve, as well as his confessional. It is the universal language that begins where the words leave off."

No better time to develop an interest in music can be found than at Christmas. Imbued with the spirit of the day and the preparations to develop a broader appreciation and interest in music than at any other time. Through music, she says, we can build a foundation of understanding and right attitude upon which can rest the emotional development of the child.

CHRISTMAS PROCLAIMS GLORY COME TO BLESS A NEEDY WORLD

The Year's Most Gracious Season Derives Its Spirit From God's Most Gracious Gift—The Old Story A Pattern For New World—Bethlehem World Capital Today

By EARL L. DOUGLASS

Midway between Jerusalem and Bethlehem, a knoll overlooks the old road. On this knoll some years ago was erected a stone bench as a memorial to Holman Hunt, the British painter.

Standing on this knoll and looking down into this highway at our feet, we see the colorful life of the old and new Orient—automobiles and camel caravans; villagers and pilgrims; women from Bethlehem, bearing distinctive green, apparently the heritage from Crusader days. Nearby is the Tomb of Rachel, commemorating an Old Testament nativity which cost the life of the mother.

Scene of Great Drama.

In full view is the bare, brown hill of Judea with the mountains of Moab and their minarets of Moses in the distance. It is difficult to keep one's eyes from turning to the hilly fields directly east of Bethlehem. Here Ruth gleaned; here David wandered as a shepherd boy, playing on his self-made flute and thinking the long, long thoughts of youth. The emblem of all: this is the field where the shepherds watched their flocks by night, when the heavens were rent and they heard the first Christmas music.

As we study the outlines of Bethlehem in the clear air and sparkling sunshine, our eyes search out the truth in the mystery of activity. A rather shapeless mass is the structure which stands sentinel, overlooking the fields of Shepherds. So fierce used to be the strife between the rival churches that Turkish soldiers were kept constantly on guard at the birthplace of the birthplace of Peace to prevent bloodshed between warring disciples. A hideous partition, born of this conflict, divided the main body of the church until the British, after the armistice, summarily removed it. The building is entered by a tiny door, where the proudest king of ecclesiastic must bow low to get in.

Precious through the ages. What makes this church the dearest shrine on earth is found below the building itself, the crypt cut into the limestone hillside; as is still the usage in various parts of the land. So after a leisurely observation of the church proper, with its restored paintings and its ancient well, we descend to the crypt. In the alcove marked by a star, which declares in Latin that here was born Jesus, the Son of Mary, is the traditional and accepted site of the manger itself.

All the garish manifestation of chuchillism is forgotten, and once again the spot is the simple cave-stable of a village khan, with the animals tethered nearby, and certain of those who drove the animals or tended them lodging in the same friendly quarters. Here on the very spot the miracle befell: the Son of God was born to mortals to show them he would that His Father's nature is love.

What a viewpoint from which to survey the thronging problems of our time! In the hearts of people everywhere, expectation and hope struggle with fear and despair. What a world in any needier state two thousand years ago than it is today?

Now, while musing in the literal presence of the manger, there comes stealing into our mind a fresh assurance that the Hero has already appeared, and the word has already been spoken. What we have looked for so desperately, and what we must need to see and hear, may be found in the Christmas story. Here in the silence of the cave which shuts out all sound save the beating of our own hearts, the inner voice of conviction declares that the Advent, which this sacred spot witnessed, is the answer to our time's most urgent longing.

Message for Today. To this little cave, once in the long ago, came a group of affrighted, wondering shepherds, looking for the Babe, and repeating a marvelous tale of Shekinah glory, and the birth of the Christ.

The host of heaven singing a triumphant song of glory and of peace and of good will; of an angel messenger declaring that the long-desired Messiah had come to Bethlehem—as the prophet had foretold—and had come as a swaddling Babe to be found lying in a manger.

We lay the wonder-tale parallel to our time. What do we want, oh so hungry? A new scheme of life. Whom do we seek? An adequate leader.

Is this not exactly what Christmas offers?

In this cave in Bethlehem where we stand, the New King came to men. His Inaugural Address, pronounced for Him by an angel, promised peace and good will, whereever human hearts accept His sovereignty.

Truly, Christmas brings us an adequate answer to all the thronging questions of these troubled times. As we leave the crypt, and the Church of the Nativity, in a new mood of awe and vision, we find ourselves repeating, as an invitation to the world: "Let us go even now unto Bethlehem."

SEVEN SENTENCE SERMONS.

He is happiest, he is king or peasant, who finds peace in his home.—Goethe.

Do all the good you can, by all the means you can, in all the places you can, to all the people you can, as long as you can.—John Wesley.

It is good to be children sometimes and never better than at Christmas, when its Mighty Founder was a Child Himself.—Dickens.

He comes, the broken hearts to bind, the bleeding souls to cure; And with the treasures of His grace To enrich the humble poor.—Doddridge.

Fear not, for behold, I bring you good tidings of great joy, which shall be to all people. For unto you is born this day in the city of David, a Saviour, which is Christ the Lord.—Luke 2:10-11.

Sages, leave your contemplations; Brighter visions beam afar; Seek the great Desire of nations; Come and worship.

Worship Christ the new-born King.—Montgomery.

Jesus loves everybody, as though each one were everybody and there were no one else to share it.—Warne.

Cotton Producers Ask Conference On Top Problems

MTMPHIS, Tenn., Dec. 21—(UPI)—

A special labor committee from the beltwide cotton producers conference will meet in Washington Jan. 15 to urge changes in the international labor contract agreement with Mexico.

The committee decided at a meeting of the conference here yesterday to ask free admission of Mexican nationals to the United States when there is a certified labor shortage in any area.

Judge Hawkins' retirement on Jan. 1 will end nearly 30 years of service with the high court. He did not seek re-election.

Stewart W. Hellman of Fort Worth, president of the District and County Attorneys Association of Texas, presented the retiring judge with a framed tribute from the association expressing its admiration, thanks and appreciation.

The conference also wants a federal guarantee that planters won't lose their shirts by doubling their crops next year.

The committee voted to ask Agriculture Secretary Brannan to call a public meeting in Washington to check cotton's financial future—especially in regard to the present 90 per cent parity support price.

Cotton prices are high now, the committee said, but will they stay that way? And delegates said parity method of supports would not cover planters if their expensively grown cotton was surplus in '51.

Costs Increasing.

J. C. Wilson of Pecos, Texas, said cotton grown for next year will be planted, cultivated and harvested under increasing costs for labor, machinery and materials.

Wilson, vice chairman of the committee and president of the Five-States Cotton Growers Association, said the conference didn't draw up recommendations to place before Brannan. But he said he thought another method of price supports would have to be adopted.

The government has asked for a 16,000,000 bale crop next year.

Orange Eases Wafflebottom Jury Situation

ORANGE, Dec. 21—(UPI)—Members of grand juries here have been taken out of the wafflebottom category.

Thanks to Joe Parsley, the "Around Town and Country" columnist for the Orange Leader, in calling several particularly long sessions of the panels this year, grand juries are no longer on for "softer sitting" for the jurors.

A report to District Judge F. W. Hustmyre from the present panel was tallied with a commendation to the commissioners court for "having provided more comfortable canals for the grand jury room."

The question does not apply to the lucky ones, those who cline in swarms to railroad flatcars or huddle in silent mounds of humanity on the backs of jolting trucks.

What of Majority?

But what of the great majority—mostly families on foot, pulling their little car or toting their belongings on their backs over icy mountain roads in zero weather?

In their faces you find nothing.

Nothing—neither hope nor despair. In their eyes there is no pain. There are no complaints.

In flight from the forces of Communism, these people trudge steadily across frozen snowy fields, avoiding the heavily traveled roads whenever possible.

You never see a child cry or smile or laugh. You never hear any chatter or conversation among families.

You wonder if perhaps things were different far back up the road. You wonder if this bitter trek has finally squeezed from these stricken people every last bit of feeling except a blind determination to keep going.

No Rest At All.

There is no rest by day, not even for food. Never do they eat a family meal. Never do they have a break. Weary children are allowed occasional rides on the cartloads already piled high with bundles. Babies are strapped to the backs of their mothers. But for the adult from dawn to dusk there is no rest at all.

Former Grid Star Of SMU Speaker; Letters Awarded

Boyd Payne Tells Of Tough Loop For '51 Season

By TALMADGE CANANT
Sports Staff

A near-capacity crowd gathered at the Corsicana high school Tuesday night for the only third annual Tiger Football Banquet, to pay tribute to the Tiger runners-up in the 1950 District 13-AA football race.

Harry Shuford, counsel for the Farmers Reserve Bank of Dallas, and a former gridiron great of SMU, was the featured speaker at the banquet, which was sponsored by the Corsicana Civitan Club and held in the school cafeteria.

Name Letterman

Head Football Coach Boyd Payne introduced the members of the squad and those who earned letters during the past season. A top notch program of entertainment and laughs was presented around the feature events.

Shuford, a team mate on the 1935 SMU team with Bobby Wilson, Eddy Stamps, Bob Finley, Maco Stewart and other ex-Corsicanan players, opened his remarks with:

"I'm glad to hear Corsicana lost a game this year. Until I came down here I thought SMU and Rusty Russell were to be the ones who were losing this season. Shuford told the Tiger squad members seated at a long table near the front of the cafeteria, that football had taught them lessons that would help them through life "as much as any other thing you'll learn." In life, as in football, it takes humor to break the tension, and it takes confidence in one's self. "We need confidence more than anything else these days—confidence and faith."

Shuford told several amusing anecdotes concerning his association with Corsicana football players. He stayed on the Tyler high school team that played Corsicana in 1931, and remarked that "I've been chasing Bobby Wilson ever since."

Shuford was introduced by N. Suttle Roberts. R. A. Armistead acted as master of ceremonies, and President Morris Battle introduced the officers of the Civitan Club and their wives and guests.

Coach Payne told the throng that he thought the 1950 Tigers "the best club we've had since we've been here. It had spirit, fight, and willingness to work. He reminded the grid fans that the Tigers have lost but two games in two years.

Schedule Tough

Of the 1950 team, Payne said that it will be young, but "pretty good size." He said that the schedule under the new League reorganization will be tough. "I want to warn you now. We appreciate your support now, but we also want it when we lose." He jokingly added that "the flop of the year was Notre Dame, and they gave their coach a raise."

Payne recognized Lavell Isbell and Jimmy Andrews as "two of the best one-year linemen I ever had," and similarly credited Kenneth Stegall, a one-year back. John Dearen, Donald Tubberville and

City Pays Special Prosecutor $1,000

In face of a threatened injunction to stop the city from hiring a special prosecutor in felony cases, the city commission last Friday authorized payment of $1,000 to Robert Bond, League attorney, who acted as the city's special prosecutor in a recent policy case in district court.

Three commissioners and the mayor voted for the payment with Commissioner Fred Prince voting against it.

A hearing on the injunction has been set for Jan. 2.

Prince stated if the threatened suit might not mean that the city couldn't pay the fee?

Commissioner Edgar Rittersbacher stated he felt if the city paid it now that nothing could be done to stop payment.

Possibility of Suit:

"Just because they have started an injunction doesn't mean the judge will rule in favor of it," he added. "If he does we might be sued for the money."

It was not made clear just what legal services Bond was paid for. No mention was made if the $1,000 was for all the cases scheduled to be tried, or if it was for the one recently lost in district court.

Commissioner J. E. Davant, Jr., said Bond had stated his fees would be $100 for a grand jury appearance and $500 for each court case.

The motion for payment was presented by Davant and seconded by Rittersbacher.

The dangers of "1080" poison being used by commercial exterminators in the city was explained to the commission by Marvin Wallace and Dr. J. L. Hollingsworth.

They told of several animals being killed by the poison and asked that the use of it be controlled.

City Attorney Julius Jacobs said he had investigated the matter and learned from the health department that there was no law in Texas against using it.

Miss Loretta Gaillard, city sanitarian, said the city had used it some but wasn't using it now.

Mayor Hubert T. Braselton instructed Miss Gaillard to get in touch with the exterminators and to have them meet with the commission in an effort to better control the use of poison.

David Brown was named "three of the best sophomore rookies."

Blooming Grove Boy On Dean's List

Thomas Sewell, Jr., of Blooming Grove, Joe Sheppard of Frost and Vernon Bruner of Kerens were among the twenty-four senior students listed among the top 2 per cent of the student body of 5,200 at Baylor University.

The dean's honor roll listed only 110 students who made straight A records during the fall semester, and Navarro county was represented by the three above named students.

As joyful voices herald the approach of another Christmas season, we are grateful for the friendships and close associations it has been our privilege to enjoy.

At no other time of the year do warm feelings and fond words seem more fitting and sincere and so, in humble appreciation of our good fortune, and from the bottom of our hearts we say, "A Joyous Christmas To All".

NJC Wins Second Tilt From Clifton Quintet, 57-42

The travel-weary Navarro Junior College carvers turned in a 57-42 win over the Clifton Junior College quintet in Clifton Tuesday night.

Don Granger, with 14 points, and Oscar Chisholm with 13, sparked the Bulldogs in last night's game, and the locals were never behind. They held a 24-20 margin at halftime.

It was the second win for Navarro over the Clifton crew in the space of a week. They defeated Clifton here last Tuesday, Dec. 12.

Ted Darland, Ross Cleveland and Don Granger fouled out of the game before the final whistle but the Bulldogs had enough lead to prevent their being overtaken.

Navarro County Commissioners In Special Session; Discuss Finances

A number of matters were discussed at a special meeting of the commissioners court Tuesday afternoon with the old members and two new members-to-be on hand. Department heads of the courthouse were also in the conference on financial and other matters.

The court decided to conduct a monthly conference and get-together to foster better understanding between the court and the office-holders. The meetings will be held on the afternoon at the regular second Monday sessions of the court.

Petition Presented. A petition signed by W. D. Alsworth and 89 other citizens requested the court to designate the old Powell-Roane road as a farm-mail affair. The petition was accepted and the request is to be sent to the Texas highway commission. Dr. W. W. Carter of Corsicana, one of the signers, said he had taken A. F. Mitchell, highway commissioner, over the route. He said the court would experience no right-of-way trouble.

The pavement of the shoulders of Highway 31 in Powell, two blocks, was also discussed and action is expected on that within the near future.

The office-holders asked that Tuesday, Dec. 26, be a holiday. The court passed an order allowing this extra day. At a recent meeting, the court said the extra days will extend from Friday afternoon until Tuesday morning, but the extra day will be allowed.

Property Valuations. Considerable discussions were held relative to valuations of the new year.

Mr. Ralph Elliott is president.

Mrs. Bristow's subject was "Building a Sense of Honor and Honesty in Children." These elements, pointed out the speaker, are not the gifts of birth but must be built, and children's attitudes are the responsibility of the home.

Three factors are important in the building of a sense of honor and honesty, she said, listing them as precept, example and experience.

Minutes were read by Mrs. C. L. Nichols.

The association next will meet Tuesday, January 25, when the value of report cards will be discussed by Mrs. T. R. Red and Miss Sarah Holman, principal of Robert E. Lee school.

Mrs. Beula Huff, principal and Grade I teacher, will be in charge of students features.

For the December meeting a holiday decor prevailed with a Christmas tree a predominant feature.

13 Indictments Returned; Grand Jury Discharged

The October term grand jury in a written report made to A. P. Mays, district judge, Tuesday afternoon when it was finally discharged cleared local peace officers of rumors of abuse of prisoners as "without justification."

The report, signed only by W. E. McKinney, foreman, said the report of promiscuous gambling was true but that the grand jury had been unable to obtain sufficient evidence to "justify indictment at this time." It raped a night spot.

The 13 indictments returned Tuesday afternoon were as follows: Burglary—Charles Amos, wyant, 4 cases, and Thomas Eugene Riley, 4 cases.

Forgery and passing—Ollie Vern Surrill, 3 cases; Jack Jonathan, one case.

Keeping and exhibiting a policy game—Selma L. Burnett, alias I. L. Burnett.

Three Arrested For Riding On Freight Train

A freight train ride from Hearne to Corsicana proved pretty costly to a trio here Tuesday.

Mexia police radioed city police here that the men were in a coal car en route to Corsicana—tossing matches along the dry, grassy right-of-way.

A railway agent, city police and highway patrolmen nabbed the trio as the freight pulled into Corsicana.

The men, one an admitted ex-convict from North Carolina, denied setting fire to the right-of-way. They got on the train at Hearne, they said.

They were taken before Justice of the Peace W. H. Johnson, who assessed each a $25 and costs fine for "illegally and unlawfully riding a freight train."

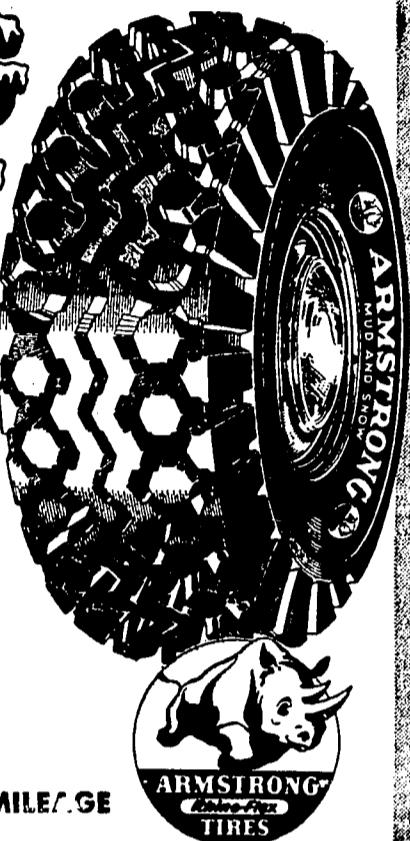

Without funds, the trio went to jail. They remain under investigation.

Housing Authority Highway Commission Authorizes Repairs On Two Navarro Roads On White Homes

Repairs and improvements on two Navarro county highways were authorized Tuesday by the Texas Highway commission.

The commission announced a huge, high-type road reconstruction program that will bring major reconstruction to 3,100 miles of highways in 179 counties at a cost of $7,785,000, according to an Associated Press dispatch from Austin.

One of the local projects is a seal coat on Farm 642 near Pflugerville at a cost of $2,200. This is a resurfacing job.

The other project involves patching and repairing Highway 75 from Corsicana to Richland. It is understood this work will call for the expenditure of $17,300 and is preparatory to the widening of this highway similar to what has been done north of Corsicana to Ennis.

The commission is expected to award the job to a local contractor.

The authority authorized its architects, Boose and Harkrider, Fort Worth, to prepare specifications for the 116 units. It is expected the bids for the 84 non-white units will be sought within a week.

Ware Schedule Adopted.

The CSA adopted a ware schedule proposed by the Public Housing Authority field office and authorized it to be included in the specifications for the white project.

Estur A. Pierce, chairman of the authority, suggested that Hal Faughn, executive director, prepare a list of buildings owned by the authority and these be advertised for sale after the authority makes an inspection tour.

To Sell Buildings.

The authority plans to advertise these buildings for sale individually or under a total bid. All buildings to be advertised are in the white project. His suggestion was adopted.

Billings authorized paid included the following:

County clerk for filing fees, etc., $75.50; Ed M. Polk Insurance Co., insurance on buildings owned by the authority, $70.70, and the CSA's architects, $9,058.75.

The latter bill is for 15 per cent of the architects' work on the intermediate stages of the white project. Boose and Harkrider now have completed 40 per cent of their work on the white project, it was said.

Payment of the architects' fee is to be made when their contract is completed with that is when the specifications are completed and bids are advertised.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Glass of Harlingen will be holiday guests of Mrs. Percy Townsend.

Mrs. Foster Is Buried Tuesday

Funeral services for Mrs. R. H. Foster, 89, who died Sunday at her home in Hubbard, were held Tuesday at the Wolfe Funeral Chapel at Hubbard with burial in the Hubbard Hill cemetery northwest of Dawson.

Surviving are three sons, Malcolm and Ed Foster, both of Hubbard and Herman Foster, Dawson; two daughters, Miss Maud Foster, Hubbard, and Mrs. Tom McMillan, Dawson; 18 grandchildren and 31 great-grandchildren.

Norris-Hamilton Christmas Party

More than 50 employees, wives and friends will attend the annual Christmas party of the Norris-Hamilton Motor Co. at the company's showrooms on Third avenue Wednesday night. A turkey dinner was served with city police on duty in that section as special guests.

A Christmas tree loaded with gifts was a feature of the entertainment. A bingo party was enjoyed following the distribution of gifts from the tree.

NEW YORK STOCK EXCHANGE

By The Associated Press

NEW YORK, Dec. 21—(AP)—With utilities up and rails down, the stock market today presented an irregular price picture.

Utilities rallied early in the day and maintained a good show of activity the remainder of the session.

Rails tipped down in small amounts for the most part in response to the government's settlement with four major railroad operating unions of a two-year dispute.

The agreement calls for substantial pay increases and other benefits, but the question of higher freight rates and passenger fares to pay for the higher wages was left unanswered for the moment.

Trading volume was estimated at 3,000,000 shares, somewhat under the record daily volume in the market during yesterday's trading, came to 3,500,000 shares.

Gains were confined to a few cents to more than $1 a share while losses were mostly less than $1.

The strength of the utilities served to brighten the complexion of the entire market but there was little of note elsewhere.

Individual stocks of Anderson-Clayton jumped more than $1.

Others higher include Consolidated Edison, Public Service Gas & Electric, Missouri-Kansas-Texas, U. S. Gypsum, American Woolen, Westinghouse Electric and Allied Chemical.

Local Collegians Ended Pre-Yule Slate Wednesday

Wilburn Guthrie
Sparked Attack
With 14 Points

By TALMADGE CANANT
Sun Sports Staff.

The Navarro Bulldogs closed their pre-Christmas basketball swing with a 60-35 lacing of the Temple Junior College quintet Wednesday night on the junior high school court here.

Coach Ken Clark's crew was never behind, but the first half of the game was nip-and-tuck, and it wasn't until the closing minutes of the fracas that Navarro pulled away to as much as a 10-point lead.

Hustling Wilburn Guthrie sparked the Navarro scoring attack and bucketed 14 points from his guard position, while Oscar Chrisman, Don Granger and Ted Darland lent valuable support, with Ross Cleveland and others doing yeoman work under the basket.

Free Shots.

Only in the foul-shot conversion department were the visitors superior to Navarro. They converted 11 out of 16 shots from the foul line and only 12 goals from the field. F. Allman led the Temple scoring with 11 points.

Both teams looked rusty in some departments, but Navarro ended up the stronger despite a stringer schedule that was seen them in six games during five playing days.

Navarro jumped to an 8-1 lead in the first five minutes of play.

The visitors staged a rally later in the period, pulling up to within four points of Navarro at 18-14, but a Navarro spurge in the final seconds of the first half netted the Bulldogs a halftime lead of 24-16.

Bulldogs Rally.

Opening the second canto, Temple made its last serious threat of the game, using a fast break to pull up to 24-20. But Navarro began to hit the basket again, pulled away at 34-28, and from there on in held at least a 10-point advantage even though Clark ran in every man on his squad.

Navarro plays no more basketball games until after Jan. 1, and on Jan. 12 opens its conference basketball race in Bryan against Allen Academy's Ramblers.
